

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Ecumenical Network Justice-Ecology-Peace (ROJEP) as well as the Permanent Secretariat of the World Forum on Theology and Liberation (WFTL) wishes to express their profound recognition to the organizations and individuals mentioned below for their financial or other support. In addition to the generous contribution in personnel from many organizations and individuals or the organizational level, of which a more detailed mention is offered elsewhere, the invaluable solidarity of some many partners has proven decisive in the carrying out of this project of the World Forum on Theology and Liberation, a first in the northern hemisphere !

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Religious communities

Congrégation Notre-Dame
Congrégation Notre-Dame du Perpétuel-Secours
Filles de la Sagesse
Institut Notre-Dame-du-Bon-Conseil de
Montréal
Œuvres Marie-Anne Lavallée (Oblates franciscaines de St-Joseph) Œuvres Le Royer (Sœurs Hospitalières de Saint-Joseph)
Servantes de Notre-Dame Reine du Clergé
Société des Missions-Étrangères
Sœurs de la Charité d'Ottawa
Sœurs des Saints Noms de Jésus et de Marie
Sœurs Auxiliatrices
Sœurs de la Miséricorde
Sœurs de Sainte-Croix
Union des Ursulines du Canada (Québec)
Anonymus donation by a community

Churches

Quebec Catholic Bishops Assembly
The James Robertson Fund at The United Church of Canada Foundation
Anglican Church

Foundations

Fondation Béati
Catherine Donnelly Foundation (Toronto)

Institutions of Theology and Religious Studies

Faculty of theology and religious studies of the University of Montreal
Department of Theological Studies of Concordia University
Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies of Laval University

Organizations

Development and Peace
ROJEP

Individuals

Two anonymous gifts
Participants in the WFTL

IN-KIND CONTRIBUTIONS

Centre justice et foi (meeting spaces)
Confédération des syndicats nationaux (CSN)
(material)
Espace Art Nature ( « Voix du silence» and other elements)
Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies of the University of Montreal (support for a intern at the WFTL)
Oblates franciscaines de Saint-Joseph (coordination of volunteers and the cost of a meal for this group) Paroisse Ste-Madeleine d'Outremont (meeting space)

Thank you!